VILLA SARD-1710 SARDINIA & SICILY, ITALY

DESCRIPTION

Close to Porto Cervo e Poltu Quatu, a delicious villa to experience the Sardinian life. The villages of Porto Cervo, Baja Sardinia and Poltu Quatu are very close to Villa Sophie.

A peaceful oasis overlooking the large sandy bay with emerald green sea. The villa is located in a 2,000 m² terraced garden with a small orchard and olive trees, that blend in with the surrounding nature. The stunning views from the terraces together with the tranquillity of the area contribute to create a relaxing, peaceful atmosphere. Built in 2008 by one of the most gifted and well-known architects, Jean-Claude Lesuiss –boasts both unrivalled elegance and charm and a striking position. Spa facilities such as a Turkish bath under a “stry sky” and a sauna complement this stunning villa.

There is a heated swimming pool and many terraces offering spectacular views. An ample shady area for outdoor barbequing, a cellar and private garages complete the villa.

A long winding sandy beach is just a 10 min walk away through juniper trees. The only building on the beach is a restaurant which can be seen in the distance.

A first class Hi-Fi system including outdoor speakers subtly hidden in the gardens, reaches all the rooms of the villa and the terraces and porches. The villa's kitchen opens onto a dining area boasting a large elegant dining table for 12 people.

The villa has modern harmonic interiors enriched by sculptures and colours, which are characteristic to the Architect's style : the shaped banisters, window frames, tables, window sills – lights and striking colourful glass details, granite and marble carvings. Also separate bedroom for staff with private bathroom.
